Right to Information (RTI) and Information delivery system of the Institution

Habraghat Mahavidyalaya, being a Government funded public institution, is subject to RTI Act, 2005. To ensure transparency and accountability, the College has put in place a proper information delivery mechanism. One senior most faculty member of the College performs the duties and responsibilities as the Public Information Officer (PIO) of the College. The PIO receives all types of RTI applications. On receipt the application, the PIO registers the matter in the RTI Register and seeks information from the concerned department or section of the College, as the case may be. The PIO ensures the timely reply of the RTI queries. The college has so far received and replied satisfactorily to several such queries within the stipulated time.
