Introduction:

The IQAC of Habraghat Mahavidyalaya, Krishnai, in collaboration with the National Institution of Electronics & Information Technology (NIELIT), Guwahati, organized a one-day workshop on 15th June 2022. The workshop aimed at empowering elderly individuals by familiarizing them with mobile applications for digital payments and e-governance services.

Objectives

1. To educate elderly participants on the use of mobile applications for digital transactions.
2. To enhance their understanding of e-governance services available through mobile platforms.
3. To address concerns and safety measures associated with online transactions.
4. To promote digital literacy and inclusivity among the elderly population.

Participants

The workshop saw active participation 96 elderly persons from the local community. The participants were eager to learn and adapt to the digital changes in the world.

Sessions and Activities

The workshop was divided into several interactive sessions, each focusing on different aspects of digital payments and e-governance.

1. Inaugural Session:

- o Welcome Address: The workshop began with a welcome address by Dr. Mantu Kr. Das, Principal, Habraghat Mahavidyalaya, Krishnai.

- Inaugural Speech: Mr. A.K. Boro Programme Coordinator of NIELIT Guwahati, highlighted the importance of digital literacy for the elderly persons.

2. Introduction to Mobile Applications:

- An overview of popular mobile applications for digital payments, such as Google Pay, Paytm, and BHIM.
- Demonstrations on downloading and setting up these applications.

3. Digital Payments:

- Step-by-step guidance on making digital payments, including transferring money, paying bills, and recharging mobile phones.
- Hands-on practice sessions where participants could simulate transactions.

4. E-Governance Services:

- Information on accessing government services online, such as applying for documents, paying taxes, and checking pension status.
- Demonstrations of various government portals and mobile apps.

5. Safety and Security:

- Discussion on safety measures to protect against fraud and scams.
- Tips on creating strong passwords and recognizing phishing attempts.

6. Interactive Q&A Session:

- An open floor for participants to ask questions and clear their doubts.
- Personalized assistance provided to participants needing extra help.

Conclusion:

The workshop concluded with a feedback session where participants shared their experiences. Many expressed their gratitude and felt more confident in using digital technologies for daily transactions and accessing government services.

Dr. Akbar Ali Ahmed, the coordinator of IQAC, Habraghat Mahavidyalaya, Krishnai expressed satisfaction with the successful conduct of the workshop and emphasized the need for ongoing support and training for the elderly persons.

Acknowledgments

Special thanks were extended to the organizing teams of IQAC Habraghat Mahavidyalaya and NIELIT Guwahati, the trainers, and all the participants for making the workshop a success.
