Introduction:

The Department of Political Science at Habraghat Mahavidyalaya, in collaboration with GEOID FORUM, Goalpara, Assam, organized a national webinar focused on the "Politics of Ethnic Identity, Conflicts, and State Response in North East India." The event aimed to delve into the intricate dynamics of ethnic identity politics and its implications on regional conflicts and state responses in the North East Indian context.

Key Objectives:

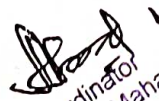

1. Understanding Ethnic Identity Politics:

- To explore the historical and contemporary aspects of ethnic identity politics in North East India.
- To examine how ethnic identities have been shaped by colonial legacies, migration, and state policies.

2. Analyzing Conflicts:

- To identify the root causes of ethnic conflicts in the region, including socio-economic disparities, political marginalization, and cultural tensions.
- To discuss the impact of these conflicts on regional stability, development, and social cohesion.

3. Evaluating State Responses:

Coordinator
QAC, Habraghat Mahavidyalaya

Principal
Habraghat Mahavidyalaya
Krishnai.

- To critically assess the effectiveness of state policies and interventions in addressing ethnic conflicts.
- To highlight successful case studies and identify areas where state responses have been inadequate.

4. Promoting Inclusive Policies:

- To advocate for inclusive and participatory policy-making processes that address the needs and aspirations of diverse ethnic groups.
- To emphasize the importance of grassroots-level engagement and community involvement in conflict resolution.

5. Facilitating Dialogue:

- To provide a platform for scholars, policymakers, activists, and community leaders to share their insights and experiences.
- To foster a collaborative dialogue aimed at developing comprehensive strategies for peace and development in North East India.

6. Raising Awareness:

- To raise awareness among participants about the complexities of ethnic identity politics and the urgent need for sustainable solutions.
- To educate and inform a wider audience about the socio-political dynamics of North East India.

7. Encouraging Research and Scholarship:

- To encourage further academic research and scholarship on ethnic identity and conflict in North East India.
- To support young scholars and researchers in contributing to the discourse on these critical issues.

8. Building Networks:

- To build networks and partnerships among academic institutions, civil society organizations, and government agencies for ongoing collaboration and knowledge sharing.
- To strengthen the capacity of local organizations in conflict resolution and peacebuilding efforts.

- The event facilitated a collaborative dialogue among scholars, policymakers, activists, and community leaders.
- Participants shared insights and experiences, fostering a multidisciplinary approach to addressing ethnic conflicts.

6. Increased Awareness:

- The webinar raised awareness about the complexities of ethnic identity politics and the need for sustainable solutions.
- Attendees were educated on the socio-political dynamics of North East India, promoting a broader understanding among the audience.

7. Encouragement of Further Research:

- The event encouraged further academic research and scholarship on ethnic identity and conflicts in North East India.
- Young scholars and researchers were motivated to contribute to the discourse on these critical issues.

8. Development of Practical Solutions:

- Practical solutions and strategies for addressing ethnic conflicts and enhancing state response were proposed.
- The discussions aimed to contribute to peace, stability, and development in the region.

9. Documentation and Dissemination:

- The outcomes and key insights from the webinar were documented for future reference and dissemination.
- These materials will serve as valuable resources for policymakers, researchers, and practitioners working on ethnic issues in North East India.

Conclusion:

The national webinar successfully achieved its objectives, contributing to a deeper understanding of ethnic identity politics and conflicts in North East India. It also proposed practical solutions for state response and policy-making, fostering a more peaceful, inclusive, and equitable society in the region.

The webinar aims to contribute to a deeper understanding of the politics of ethnic identity and conflicts in North East India, while also proposing practical solutions for state response and policy-making. By achieving these objectives, the organizers hope to foster a more peaceful, inclusive, and equitable society in the region.
